4. CITY ADMINISTRATOR/DEPARTMENT DIRECTORS REPORTS

Public Works Director Bob Cochran reported that Linda Hulme has completed and submitted to Oregon DEQ the NPDES MS4 Stormwater permit renewal package. This was a long and tedious process. Mr. Cochran gave kudos to Linda for her work on the permit renewal. Cochran also reported on the CCTV project in Old Town. The project cleaned and video'd all older stormwater pipes so that the City can identify older failing pipes and create a schedule for their replacement.

Police Chief Ken Johnson reported on the success of last night's National Night Out event, thanking Officer Neel O'Donnell and Public Affairs Coordinator Interns Will Miller and Caroline Park. Chief Johnson updated Council on the Part Time Administrative Assistant recruitment.

Community Development Director John Gessner reported to Council that Lexmar development has contracted with Providence for purchase of five acres. Mr. Gessner informed Council that Metro will be at the next City Council meeting to present on the Blue Lake Golf Course project.

5. MAYOR/COMMITTEE REPORTS AND COUNCIL COMMENTS

Councilor Barton Mullins commended staff on recent events such as the Bike Rodeo at the Fairview Oaks and Woods apartments and the Birthday Bash.

Councilor Jones echoed the praise of Councilor Barton Mullins, commending staff on the Birthday Bash. Councilor Jones also updated Council on the planning of the Chili Festival.

Councilor Cooper also commended staff on their hard work on recent events.

Councilor Owen reported on a meeting he had with John Gessner and members of the Fairview/Rockwood/Wilkes Historical Society.

Councilor Quinby thanked citizens for attending recent City events and spoke of the riparian buffer zone around Fairview Lake and code enforcement issues.

Councilor Maricle expressed regret for not attending the Birthday Bash and thanks staff for their efforts.

Mayor Weatherby echoed the comments by Council, commending staff.
